

Joshua Ryan Rexroat

August 3, 1979 - June 21, 2018

Joshua “Josh” Ryan Rexroat died June 21, 2018, at Hospice Austin’s Christopher House in Austin, TX, with his wife by his side. Josh fought a grueling 10-month battle with an aggressive stomach cancer and is finally free of its pain and misery. Josh was born August 3, 1979, in Dallas, TX, and moved to Austin when he was just three years old, where he lived for most of his life. Josh leaves behind his wife, Cherish Landes Rexroat; their 6-year old daughter, Zoey Rexroat; his mother, Mary Ellen Rexroat; his father and step-mother, Bill & Connie Rexroat; and his sister, Ashley Holloway.

Josh was a well-loved man and had many friends, most of whom he’d known since childhood. Josh was a great movie buff and possessed a wealth of knowledge, the bulk of which he claimed he learned from watching educational TV shows. His wit was sharp and he effortlessly entertained the people around him with his easy-going demeanor, natural humor and sarcastic perspective. He met the love of his life, Cherish, in 2008 and they officially married in 2013. Their daughter was born in 2012, which is when Josh became a stay-at-home-father while Cherish continued to work as an accountant. He will be missed and remembered by many for decades to come.

Josh wished to have his remains cremated. A private memorial will be held July 28 to celebrate his amazing life. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Hospice Austin's Christopher House or to the fundraiser linked below, which was set up to for his wife and daughter as they attempt to rebuild their lives without him. <https://www.gofundme.com/rexroat-family-fundraiser>
