“ My grandfather, Papi was a very prideful respectable and hard-working man, he did whatever he could to take care of his family, his children, grandchildren, and his wife. Growing up, I hardly ever saw him smile and laugh, but when he did, he lit up He didn't care for the outside world before his family you went above and beyond i'm truly blessed to call you, my Papi you will be missed. You are now an angel looking over your family. I love you
