

Judith Ann Wright

December 22, 1939 - February 10, 2026

Judith Ann Wright, 86, passed away peacefully on February 10, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family.

Born on December 22, 1939, Judith lived a life defined by devotion to her family, quiet strength, and enduring kindness. She was a loving mother, sister, and friend whose warmth touched all who knew her. Judith's steady presence, generous heart, and gentle spirit created a foundation of love that will continue through the generations she leaves behind.

She is survived by her beloved daughter, Robin Wright; her sisters, Sandra Green and Beverly Trombley; and her brother, Francis Wright. She also leaves behind extended family and dear friends who will cherish her memory.

Judith's legacy is one of compassion, resilience, and unwavering love for those closest to her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.