

Karoline Dragica Littlefield

June 6, 1943 - September 16, 2024

Karoline Dragica Littlefield-Vibik passed away in Austin, TX on September 14, 2024.

Karoline was born in Beograd, Yugoslavia, to Martin and Milica Vibik. Growing up in a country shaped by the Eastern Bloc, she shared her childhood with two brothers, Branko and Voya, and a sister, Olga. As a young woman, Karoline's thirst for knowledge led her to West Germany, where she pursued higher education. After completing her studies, she moved to the United States, where she embarked on a new journey, raising her beloved sons, Johnny and Brian.

Karoline was a woman of many talents. Her career spanned the medical and computer fields, and she even ventured into entrepreneurship. She was known for her intelligence, determination, and unwavering desire to provide the best for her children. A passionate animal lover, Karoline cared for her pets with great affection, treating them as part of her family.

Throughout her life, Karoline was a source of strength and support for many. A tireless worker, she often held multiple jobs simultaneously, always driven by love and a sense of responsibility. She loved deeply and made it her mission to express that love in all the ways she knew best.

Karoline was preceded in death by her parents, Martin and Milica Vibik; her brothers, Branko and Voya Vibik; and her sister, Olga. She is survived by her sons, Johnny (Sarah) and Brian (Christi); her cherished granddaughter, Abigail; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A celebration of life service will be held in the near future to honor Karoline's memory and the legacy of love she leaves behind.
