

Kyle Brett Palmer

June 16, 1992 - June 9, 2017

Kyle Brett Palmer passed away June 9, 2017. He was born in Houston June 19, 1966. His father Charles W. Palmer passed away February 16, 1992. He is survived by his mother & step-father Kenneth & Nikola James, sister Kelly Palmer Ellis, nephews Taylor Kyle Craig & Hunter Ellis. He also had 2 aunts Bethwyn Mizell & LaDonna Meldrum, many cousins & friends. Kyle had a big heart & went out of his way to help people. He will be missed however he will always live in our hearts & it was a blessing to have him as my son. I loved him dearly.

Tribute Wall

“ Kyle Brett Palmer

October 05, 2023 at 10:58 AM

“ Kyle Brett Palmer

October 04, 2023 at 06:25 PM

“ Kyle Brett Palmer

September 26, 2023 at 10:57 PM

“ Kyle was like the brother I never had. He was always so nice and kind to me whenever I was around, which was a lot when we lived in Greentee. I remember going to the club with Kelly and Kyle would drive the golf cart so we could see the gator that lived on the golf course!! He always made me laugh and I smile when I think of him and remember all the wonderful memories we had growing up together.

Cindi Davies - June 23, 2017 at 02:22 PM

DM

Kyle along with his loving family came into our lives through God In Heaven. He was GOD SENT into our lives a very true sincere loyal friend that anybody would want in their lives as truly Kyle's persona was a person full of life energy great integrity and Witt and displayed great intelligence and beyond . Always shown his true colors of a shining star! Kyle along with his entire loving family is irreplaceable and truly was a blessing to be able to be say proudly that Kyle and his family accepted you as part of their loving family as very few friendships that truly are real and sincere in our lifetime. Kyle will always be remembered in our hearts as a true genuine being here as in Heaven will be missed but never away from our fond memories!

The Duon H Miller Family

Duon Miller - September 10, 2021 at 09:29 AM

LC

“ I remember Kyle as a kind and sweet boy who grew up to be a very giving and loving man.He will not be forgotten and will be missed always.

Linda Christy - June 16, 2017 at 11:10 AM