

Luciano Ricardo Santoscoy

January 4, 1943 - February 7, 2024

We are deeply saddened to announce the sudden passing of (Luciano) Richard Santoscoy on February 7, 2024, in Round Rock, Texas. Richard was born on January 4, 1943, in El Paso, Texas to Luciano and Juanita Santoscoy. He was predeceased by his parents. Richard was a loving father, grandfather, son, brother, and friend. He is survived by his former wife and life-long friend, Nellie Mireles, his six children: Gladys Gonzalez, Elizabeth Westfall, Richard Santoscoy, Yvonne Santoscoy, Jimmy Santoscoy, and John Santoscoy along with his eighteen grandchildren, twenty-nine great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Richard was the first Hispanic person to serve as a page for former United States Senator Lyndon B. Johnson. Richard received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Work from New Mexico State University while working full-time and being a loving husband and father.

Richard had a passion for helping underprivileged youth and spent the majority of his career helping others, including managing a foster home for troubled youth. His main passion revolved around social work and impacting the lives of the less fortunate. Richard was a devoted family man and always made sure he spent quality time with his family and friends. Richard was an incredibly involved and caring grandfather. He was always there to support and encourage his grandchildren and great-grandchildren and was a surrogate Grandpa to many more people. His most impactful role and the one he loved the most was being Grandpa. He had a playful side and was known for his jokes and mischievous behavior, however; he never lost his desire for life-long learning.

Prior to his passing, Richard enrolled in a master's program in Social Work and had dreams of opening his own practice to continue to serve the community. Richard will be remembered for his warm heart, infectious laughter, quick wit, and generous spirit. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends but, will forever live in our hearts.
