

Luis Antonio Tosado

February 7, 1945 - March 22, 2023

Luis Antonio Tosado, age 78, of Copperas Cove, TX passed away on Wednesday, March 22, 2023 surrounded by family. He was born to parents Miguel Angel Tosado and Concepcion Rodriguez in Puerto Rico on February 7, 1945.

After Luis graduated from Central High School of Santurce Puerto Rico, in May 1964, he went on to work in a jewelry store. In 1969, Luis entered the US Army where he served honorably and retired with over 20 years of service. While stationed in Fort Sherman Panama Luis met Amelia Gutierrez, they were married in 1971. Their two children are Tony and Jessica.

A devoted Puerto Rican father and grandfather, he always made sure his family had what they needed. Luis is best remembered for his love of sports, sense of humor, delicious cooking, Puerto Rican recipes, listening to Salsa, gardening, and his love of fresh fruits and vegetables.

He is survived by his children, Ivette and her husband Andino, Tony and his wife Omayra, and Jessica and her husband Vontez; his grandchildren Jonathan, Francheska, Omar, Jeremy, Yulisa, Deuce, and Jevon; siblings, Luis Alfredo, Doris, and Carmen; and his numerous nieces, nephews, great grandchildren, and friends.

A viewing for Luis will be held at 2006 N W S Young Dr #60, Killeen, TX 76543 on Monday, March 27 from 5pm to 8pm. A burial with full military honors will be held on Tuesday, March 28th promptly at 10am at Central Texas State Veterans Cemetery 11463 TX-195, Killeen, TX 76542.

“ I would like to dedicate the life of my Father-In-Law Toñin Tosado as he passed away in the morning today March 22, 2023. He was a man that was very thoughtful, kind, good cook, funny with his jokes and a very giving man. It was an honor to have known this veteran and father.. My heart is broken and very num.... RIP and may you now rest in eternal peace and enjoy heaven... with the rest. My deepest and sincere condolences to Estrella De Mar, Tony Tosado, Jessica Joyce and Amelia Tosado and the whole Tosado and extended family.... :(
