“ My condolences to the Hernandez family, especial Victoria the mother. Losing a child is without a doubt one of the hardest grief to endure. you invested many years of your life loving and supporting Manuel. There is a special bond between a parent and his adult child that is priceless and special. Manuel touched many lives. My memory of him will remain for ever in my heart.

“ My condolences to my cousins Manuel and Henry and of course Lena. I have tried to type this without breaking down. I am so sad to have lost my cousin and my best friend. Chonge was always there for me whenever I needed him. I can't even express the sadness his passing has left in my heart. Just the thought of knowing that I will never feel his warm hug, and see his happy face again or hear his jokes. I thank you for loving mom and dad as if they were your own. I thank you for the fun times growing up, the fireworks when mom said no you always said yes. Thank you for buying me my graduation ring. Thanks for helping me buy my first car and taking time to go with me to the dealership. Thanks for going to the prayer meeting with me. Thank you for coming out to my son's first mariachi concert and having dinner with us. It meant the world to us! Thanks for letting me listen to Little Joe over and over again in the famous garage. Rest in Peace Manuel Carmona Hernandez in the mean time I will play your favorite songs. Until we meet again. Love Barney...Bernice Maldonado Requejo

“ To the Good Man that brightened the days of my mother and father almost every weekend once upon a time. To the amazing man that always treated me with love and kindness. To the great person that you were to all of us kids. For every holiday that you cooked for us, for every trip to play putt putt, for every awesome batch of fireworks you ever bought for us...for the great hugs. We love you. My mother loves you, my father and sisters love you. Thank you for being such a great guy. Memories, are all we have left but they last a lifetime...and NO ONE can take those from us. Though I miss you a hell of a lot right now...I am happy that you are at peace cousin, and I know we will meet again someday. Beauty, comes from within, and you sir, were one of the most beautiful people we have ever known.
