

Martha Shelby Singleton

January 15, 2021 - February 25, 2021

Martha Shelby Waive Singleton, 63, of Killeen, Texas, passed away in a single vehicle accident on February 25, 2021 in Jarrell Texas. She was born in Meadville, PA, on January 15, 1958. Shelby attended Sydney Lanier High School in Austin, TX

Throughout her life Shelby worked as an independent contractor, heavy equipment operator and truck driver. She was lovingly known as Macho Woman by her family. Shelby became the main caregiver for her beloved Uncle Dallas before his passing. She loved animals, regularly rescued cats, and she had a lifelong love of horses. She appreciated cars, loved her dog Gracie, and had a strong faith in God and in her own self reliance. Shelby is survived by daughters Patricia (Trisha) Fox, Catherine Bilbrey (Robert); grandchildren Brittany Eilers, Steven Asch, and Julia McQuay (Brandon); four great grandchildren; mother Janice M. Singleton; siblings Carwynn Singleton, Brett (Jim) Singleton (Kim), and Kathryn Clakley (Robert); Uncle David Tessmer (Mary) and Aunt Karen Tessmer.

Shelby was preceded in death by her father Lee Singleton, her brother Chris Singleton, and grandson Bradley Bilbrey.

A memorial will be held Saturday March 6, 4 PM at Faith Baptist Church, 3625 Gattis School Road Round Rock Texas, 78664. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to a local animal rescue in Shelby's honor.
