

Mary Lou Kassler

January 11, 1938 - February 11, 2022

My mother was a very strong, loyal, funny, stubborn, Feisty woman who loved her family fiercely, especially her great great grandbabies. She was one of a kind and lived a full life. She had done it all and then some. And if she loved you then nobody better mess with you or they would have the wrath of Lou to deal with lol. She taught me everything I know to be a great person and follow behind her. She was loved by so many people. If you had ever known her you probably loved her. She will be missed immensely. She was my moma and my best friend. She was preceded by her mother Annie Lee McBee Brock. Her father Garland Miller Brock. Her sisters Alice Fletcher and Joyce Mahachek. She is survived by her daughter Elizabeth Miller of Austin Texas and her son Bobby Kassler of Austin. 2 granddaughters Barbara Miller of Lexington and Shelly Cash of Austin. 6 great grandchildren Damian Michael Miller of Pflugerville, Lacy Miller of Pflugerville, Dylan Lee Miller of Lexington, Jace Milks of Round Rock, Addison Cash of Austin, Lacy Cash of Austin, 2 great great grandbabies Ryan Miller of Pflugerville, Aurora Miller of Pflugerville, 1 nephew Johnny Fletcher of Houstin, 1 niece Rhonda Fletcher of Spring

“Lou was one of the toughest and most amazing, caring people I have ever had the good fortune to know. I called her the 5 foot South Texas Tornado. She grew up in tough times and that made her fiercely independent. She was never scared to fight for what was right, and she left quite the impression on anyone she Crossed paths with. Her story was filled with fascinating anecdote and though her body has departed our realm, her story is not finished. She lives on in the love, the loyalty, and the memories she imparted to all those who knew her. Seldom do we get to say we are better people for knowing another human being, but Lou WAS that rarity. She tolerated no BS or excuses for overcoming adversity, and in doing so, she influenced more than just her blood relatives in such a positive way. You will be missed Lou and I count myself among the fortunate to call you friend. Thank you for not accepting my excuses for my mistakes because you in turn gave me faith in myself. And I thank you for caring enough to impart your wisdom upon me. It profoundly helped me to not lie to myself. You were apart of a declining generation that this world needs now more than ever. I thank Lou for these things but SO much more, and I truly hope and pray that her progeny will find healing, and love each other as she loved them. It's the hardest thing to say goodbye to such a powerful influence, such a steadfastly caring Mom, grandma, great grandma, great great grandma, and to me a friend, which is a word I use VERY seldom. Be at peace my old friend. I won't say goodbye, but rather, I'll see you again soon.

“ I am blessed to have known Liz & Lou (as they were known by my kids and me) as neighbors. After I left Round Rock, Tx, then came back through to visit, they were the only ones in the old neighborhood I cared to sit and chat with. I always loved to hear Lou's stories. She had so many great ones! She was definitely feisty and I loved her perspective on life. She was a great woman! 😊
