

Mary Evelyn Garthune Lauer

September 22, 1936 - March 1, 2014

Mary Evelyn Garthune Lauer, age 77, passed away March 1, 2014, at Hospice Austin. Mary was born on September 22, 1936, in Redfield, South Dakota, to Robert and Evelyn Garthune. Growing up she lived in South Dakota, Massachusetts, and Maryland. Mary worked as an administrative clerk for the Air Force and an administrative officer for the National Institutes of Health where she met her husband Charles Lauer. They married in 1966 and later had a son, Rob. When her son went to school, Mary went back to work part-time for a local realtor. She enjoyed being involved in the many activities associated with her son's school and sports teams.

Mary is survived by her husband Charlie of Driftwood, son Rob, his wife Amy, grandsons Andrew and Brady all of Austin, and her brother John R. Garthune and family of Maryland.

Following Mary's wishes, no services are planned. Memorial contributions may be made to Christopher House and Hospice Austin.
