

Mary Frances Nelson

November 21, 1925 - January 12, 2021

Mary Frances Adams Nelson, age 95, of Lubbock, Texas passed away January 12, 2021 in her adopted hometown of Temple, Texas. She died peacefully in her sleep. Per her wishes, a memorial party will be scheduled at a future date for those she “loved to pieces.”

Mary was born in Lubbock, Texas and spent almost all of her life there. She graduated from Lubbock High School, and retired in 1990 from Texas Instruments. She was an avid crossword puzzle fan and loved keeping score the old fashioned way while watching baseball. She was well known for her lack of patience and feisty spirit. Very recently she said "I just wish God would take me." After a reminder of patience, she said, "I better start learning." She loved chocolate and a stiff drink. Especially if she could get it for free.

Mary is preceded in death by daughter, Sandra Lynnette and son, John Charles. She is survived by children Lawrence Alton Nelson of Tomahawk, Kentucky, Lu Anne Barton, Temple, Texas, Lauren Gail Hull, Denison, Texas, and Beverly Royal Ewing of Colbert, Oklahoma. In addition she had 12 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren from across the U.S.
