

Mary Andrea Warrington

October 13, 1944 - June 3, 2026

Mary Andrea “Andie” Warrington, age 81, passed peacefully on June 3, 2026 at Baylor Scott & White Hospital in Temple, Texas.

Born on October 13, 1944, in Chicago, Illinois, Andie was the beloved daughter of Genevieve Marie Rauh and Arnold Ellsworth Summers.

Andie married the love of her life, Jim Warrington, on June 17, 1988 in Corsicana Texas. Together they built a life filled with adventure, and cherished memories over the past 37 years.

Throughout her life, Andie was an entrepreneur and animal lover. She owned a pet store in Corsicana, Texas, where she combined her passion for animals with her dedication to serving others. Later in life, she became a spiritual counselor, helping many through her Reiki practice and compassionate guidance.

Andie could best be described as free-spirited. She loved her family deeply and treasured every moment spent with her daughters, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Her love for animals knew no bounds, and over the years she cared for many species, including horses, dogs, cats, and more. She was known for her joyful spirit, warm heart, and ability to bring people together. Whether camping with her husband and family, spending time with friends, or simply sharing stories and laughter, Andie embraced life fully and made lasting memories with those she loved.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Genevieve Marie Rauh and Arnold Ellsworth Summers, and her grandson, Brandon Walker.

Andie is survived by her devoted husband, Jim Warrington; her daughter, Margie McFarland, and son-in-law, Zack McFarland; her daughter, Elizabeth Howard, and son-in-law, Jonathan Howard; her grandchildren, Rebecca Esparza, Joshua McFarland, Ashley Sturdivant, and Drew Howard; and her great-grandchildren, Jadalynn, Maverick, Aurora, Oaklynn, and Harper; and her brother in law David Warrington and sister in law Debra Warrington Andie's kindness, adventurous spirit, and unwavering devotion to her family will be remembered by all who knew and loved her. Her legacy lives on in the countless lives she touched and the family she cherished above all else.
