“ I have such fond memories when I was a child of going to Maureen and James's house. They always made us feel right at home even though we were invading their house for days and days. There were always things to do and play. We jumped on the trampoline, played hide and seek and ran around the neighborhood. She was so funny, as the only room I think I have never entered was the formal living/dining. That was always off limits to the kids. Ha. Thanks for the memories. Melinda
