“ I met Mike as Sunshine on an online Madden Community. He was always positive and level headed when folks started taking video games too seriously. I am a Raider fan also so we had that in common and would trade depth chart secrets on how to use them more effectively online vs other players. I will miss Sunshine for his online name spoke for itself... "The Greatest Balla EVER!" was his catch phrase and that is what he was... Peace be with you and your family.

“ Sunny was a really great member of our on line community. I've known him through that community for close to 7 years. We will miss him sorely. He truly was one of the special people in our community. "Heh" We'll miss you Sunny!
