“ As a child I remember going to Memaws apartment in Haltom City and playing card games for hours. We played concentration most of the time and Memaw usually won but occasionally I would get lucky and win. Or maybe she let me win. :) I love to go see her and play games. She also always let me play with Uncle Jerry's Lego, Lincoln Logs and his big skull castle which I thought was so cool. I attribute part of my love of games to Memaw by her playing games with me whenever I would visit. I wish my boys would have had the chance to get to know her; they would have loved her just like I do.
