

Paul C. Cababat

March 2, 1932 - May 10, 2024

Paul C. Cababat is survived by his children, Ardina Rabanal from Portland, OR; Brenda Dolormente from Honolulu, HI; Celso Cababat from Honolulu, HI and Donna Lyn McGee from Harker Heights, TX. He was preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, Feliza C. Cababat.

Paul was born on March 2, 1932, in Narvacan, Ilocos Sur, Philippines. Paul married Feliza on January 27, 1957. Paul had an interest with Feliza from her singing voice in church. They welcomed Ardina in 1958, Brenda in 1959, Celso in 1963 and Donna in 1972. He had a white horse whom he used to pull carriage and brought people and heavy loads as a transportation job to provide to his family. He then became a colporteur for the Northern Luzon Mission in the Philippines. He was a member of a singing group. They went to different churches and shared the gospel of Jesus Christ with their music. He became a Barangay Captain in Artacho-Pillippines. He led his little neighborhood to be peaceful and functional residential place. He was well known as a musician playing the leaf. He snapped a smooth-edged-leaf and blew a tune. His favorite music were mostly religious songs such as Old Rugged Cross and Mansion over the Hilltop.

Paul has 9 grandchildren: Ray Morris Dolormente, Marnellie Bishop, Rhonda Mae D. Cavender, Armand Rabanal, Maricel Cababat, Arielle Cababat, Devin Cababat, Ethan Roy Cababat, and Madelynne Ray C. McGee.

A memorial service for Paul Cababat is scheduled at 10:00 am-12PM on May 17, 2024, at Killeen Seventh Day Adventist Church. It will be followed by repass at Church's Fellowship Hall.
