

Peggy Schlosser

September 28, 1943 - November 16, 2018

Peggy Ruth Schlosser , 75 of Austin, Passed Away November 16, 2018

Born September 28, 1943 to Johnny and Claudia Phinney.

Peggy was a loving caring individual that would give of herself without hesitation, if she saw someone in need.

Her early years were hard on her never knowing her biological father, having been killed in WW2. She wore many hats during her life, from Bartender to restaurant owner, and even got her pilots license, in her twenties.

Peggy was a determined young woman, that at one point, having found the man she was married to , had tied her children up in the living room. Drove from Jackson Hole Wy. all the way to Florida to get away from him, to keep her children safe. Which is a good example of her tenacity. Her true passion in life was art becoming an accomplished painter, in both oils and acrylics. She enjoyed a good game of pool, fun, and having friends close.

Peggy is survived by two children, Tracy Johnston, and Paige Hartman, four grand children, Jackie, Amber ,Javan and Javier, and two great grandchildren, Ashton and Braden. Along with her biological children Peggy was also loved by her step children, Anita , Jimmy, Chris, and their children, Connor and, Sierra.

We all loved her, and there will always be an empty spot where she fit into our lives.

“ The first time Peggy and I met, was in January, bitter cold, as I was coming out from between two cars in the parking lot, walking briskly, she was leaving the parking lot and ran over me. I ended up on the hood of her Cadillac, my face against the windshield. Of course she stopped immediately and I kinda rolled off, and I told her as she left, that "there are easier ways to introduce yourself ". Who would have thought that moment would be the defining moment of the next twenty five years of my life, and I'll be thanking God for that moment for the rest of my life.

“ Some of the best times I spent with Peggy were not big events, a lot of them were quiet times, just the two of us sitting up, back when I was living with her and my Dad just after I got it off the army. We talked about all kinds of things; love, goals and dreams, human nature, faith, personal struggles. I was always amazed and comforted by her wisdom, honesty, and her capacity for love.

She had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to laugh! She made me feel good about myself when I wasn't sure where my path was headed. Once she told me: "You know, your Dad worries about Chris, and he worries about Jim, but he never worries about you. And neither do I." Her faith in me was a really powerful thing. We all need someone to believe in us; She was someone I could always count on.

She had a special light inside her, a way of caring, a generosity of spirit that is uncommon in this world. Peggy was my friend, my mom, and I will miss her all my life. But i'm certain I'll see her on the other side. Godspeed, mom. I love you.
