

Phillip Lynn Lloyd

September 1, 1943 - January 13, 2020

Here is the obituary we would like to have on your website:

Phillip Lynn Lloyd passed away January 13, 2020, in Georgetown, Texas, after a lengthy illness. Lynn was born September 1, 1943, in Russellville, Arkansas, and was preceded in death by his mother Sybil Lloyd, his sister Geraldine Merk, and his son Nathan Lloyd.

Lynn is survived by his wife Raquel of Georgetown, Texas, son Kevin and wife Sonda, grandson Colt, son Clay and wife Andrea, granddaughter Ashley, and a host of friends around the world.

A successful businessman in Little Rock, Arkansas, and an accomplished pilot, Lynn raised Longhorn cattle after moving to Texas. The family would like to express their gratitude for the kindness that has been shown to them by everyone, including Dr. Hellerstedt and the wonderful staff at Texas Oncology.

Graveside services will be held at a later date at Ball Hill Cemetery in Russellville, Arkansas. If so desired, contributions can be made to the charity of one's choice in honor of Lynn.
