

Piao Leung

October 20, 1925 - October 28, 2017

Piao Leung, aged 92, passed away peacefully at his home in Austin during the morning of Saturday, October 28, 2017. The cause of death was affects due to stroke.

He was born on October 20, 1925, and spent his life quietly and humbly working to provide his family the freedom and prosperity that he felt they deserved. This included moving throughout Southeast Asia, to Paris, and eventually to the United States, where he became a US citizen in 2011. During that time, he channelled his artistic talent and wisdom, borne of experience, through the art of calligraphy.

Piao is survived by his wife of 65 years, Paochou, his daughters Binh, My, Sy, Fong, Vanh, and Phet, his son, Chanh, his siblings Kien Nophakhoun, Kwok Wah Leung, Hong Choi Leung, and Keung Wah Leung, his 13 grandchildren, and 1 great-grandchild.

We will all miss his succinct sense of humor, quiet classiness, and gentle spirit.

Piao was interred at the Chung Mei temple in Stafford, TX, on November 5, 2017.

Memorial donations are not required.
