

Ramona B. Huddleston

July 18, 1933 - June 11, 2021

Oh victory in Jesus,
my Savior forever

He sought me and bought me with His redeeming blood
He loved me 'ere I knew Him and all my love is due Him
He plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood

Ramona B. Huddleston, known to her loved ones as Mama, moved on to the gardens of the lord on a beautiful sunny day Friday the 11th of June, 2021 in Austin, TX. She was a military wife, loyal friend, and a loving mom to her children Juan, Catherine, Kenneth, Sharon and Michael, they will forever hold her memories. Besides her five children, she is survived by two of her sisters Mercedes and Dolores, 7 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren as well as the Anchor Baptist congregation in Columbia, South Carolina. Born in Manatí Puerto Rico one 18th of July 1933, she was an avid Rummy player and entertained herself for hours on end by solving Word Search Puzzles and winning at Solitaire. Dancing was another of her passions, natively Merengue and adoptively Country; she sang and danced to her favorite tunes. Her favorite painting "In disgrace" by the late American artist Bessie Pease Gutmann rekindled her memories while growing up. Mama you're so "prutty"; we will always remember your wit and sense of humor. Que el Señor Jesucristo te tenga en Su gloria, AMEN!!!
