

Raymond Scott Smith

October 7, 1964 - September 7, 2014

Raymond Scott Smith, 49, of Austin, Texas passed away on September 7, 2014 with his family by his side.

He was an amazing, wonderful man who had a heart as big as Texas, loved life, his family, country dancing and the Longhorns.

Scott was born in San Bernardino, California on October 7, 1964. He graduated from Northbrook High School in Houston, Texas. Upon graduation, he spent 10 years in the Navy. He was stationed in Key West, Florida and Kingsville, Texas.

Scott was preceded in death by his father, Howard F. Smith. He is survived by his mother, Susan Smith; brother, Bryan Smith and wife Gina; brother, Josh Smith; sister, Courtney Gray and husband Ron; daughter, Cassandra Helton; daughter, Emily Smith and fiancé, Scotty Edmonson; son, Raymond Scott Smith; grandson, Luke Helton, along with numerous relatives and friends.

There will be a private Celebration of Life service in Austin on October 7, 2014, which would have been his 50th birthday. A second Celebration of Life and Benefit will also be held in Houston, on October 11.

For details of the Benefit, please contact a family member

“ Scott was a wonderful man that I loved very much. We had a wonderful family and life together. He was funny, loving, gentle and the best Dad and Grandpa ever. He was my dance partner yet also danced with others to keep the women in his life happy. The Lord took this man way too soon. He was so full of life and didn't know a stranger. His granddaughter Makenna will miss him dearly as he was her PaPa and nothing beat her PaPa. He would take her fishing, plant plants, or take her to a football game. She loved him so much as did most all of us. Keep Heaven dancing Scott. We love you and will keep you in our hearts forever. Kristin

I will always remember how patient he was w my girls when they were young. He spent hours on the pier baiting their hooks & teaching them how to cast. That was a special time for us. Thanks Scott!!

Yes, God called you way too soon, but you have left many happy memories to those that knew you. Thank you for bringing my daughter to see me many times and blending in with family events. I have many memories of you and your tall frame. Who will change the light on my stairs now? Every time I see that I will think of you. Also the many times you hit the wind chime with your head when going from the kitchen to the den in my house. You were very blessed with all that loved you. RIP
