

Rebecca Lynn Tooley

May 25, 1962 - August 28, 2024

Rebecca Lynn Jones, 62, of Arlington, Texas, passed away on August 28, 2024. Born on May 25, 1962, in Jackson, Mississippi, Rebecca's life was filled with faith, love, and adventure.

A proud graduate of Texas Woman's University, she earned a cum laude Bachelor of Science degree in Human Biology, Chemistry, and Nutrition. Her passion for learning was only surpassed by her commitment to helping others, which she demonstrated through numerous mission trips, where she shared her faith and compassion with communities in need.

Rebecca's adventurous spirit found its greatest joy in her love of riding motorcycles. Whether on the open road or serving others, she lived life with a fearless heart and a deep sense of purpose. She embraced her faith and carried that strength into all areas of her life, inspiring those around her.

In addition to her children, Sean, Elizabeth, and Jenna, Rebecca is survived by her parents, Mary and Arlen Jones, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and friends. Many others who had the privilege of knowing her fondly referred to her as "Mom," reflecting the boundless love and guidance she offered to all.

Rebecca will be remembered for her kindness, generosity, and the way she embraced every moment of life with passion and grace. Her legacy lives on in the hearts of all who loved her.
