“ Richard and I met in a dating AP for one date but recognized we were good friends only and stayed in touch from that time on....we met in 2020 for lunch when I drove over from Houston to pick up my tiny trailer. We laughed and chatted for a few hours and when we parted he handed me a bag of his amazing basil. I made the most wonderful pesto with it.

We stayed in touch off and on until he called with his news of cancer in 2021. I kept checking in over the months but missed hearing of his death.

My condolences to Edna and his family. He was so happy to have found you, Edna. I'm so sorry his life was cut short. As a widow, I am keenly aware how life can be so unfair. Thinking of you all, grateful to have known this lovely man.
