

Rieta Willingham Warrick

August 24, 1935 - December 22, 2013

It is with the greatest sadness that the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of REITA BETH WILLINGHAM WARRICK, announce that she passed from this life on December 22, 2013 in Temple from respiratory failure. Reita was born on August 24, 1935 in Whon, Texas to Henderson Berry Willingham and Ruby Dessa Hutchins Willingham. She was predeceased by her husband, Otho ("John") Warrick; her eldest child, Jesse Lee Harlen, Jr.; her parents, Henderson Berry Willingham and Ruby Dessa Hutchins Willingham; her brother, J. C. Hutchins; and, her most beloved sister, Lena Bell Willingham Simmons. She is survived by her daughter, Deborah Warrick and her grandson, Philip Joseph Berry Warrick; and her son, O. Berry Warrick, his daughters, Mistin Marie Warrick, and Crystal Ann Warrick; and Mistin's sons, Peyton Michael Paul Warrick, Logan Patrick John Pierce, and Aiden Matthew Ryan Warrick.

At Reita's request, her body is to be cremated, and her ashes will be buried next to her mother in Odessa, Texas. A funeral Mass was held for Reita at St. Joseph's Parish Catholic Church in Cyclone on Friday, December 27, 2013.

For more information, please contact her daughter, Deborah Warrick.

Mother's life was one of love and sacrifice. She was greatly loved, and will be missed immeasurably.

The family thanks everyone for their continual kindness and support.

Tribute Wall

“ Rieta Willingham Warrick

October 05, 2023 at 10:58 AM

“ Rieta Willingham Warrick

October 04, 2023 at 06:25 PM

“ Rieta Willingham Warrick

September 26, 2023 at 10:57 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible tells us at Acts 24:15 that the dead will be resurrected. All will get a chance to see their dead loved ones again forever. Revelation 21:4 tells us that Jehovah will eliminate death forever. I hope that these scriptures can help all in grief.

Kelsi S - December 30, 2013 at 03:49 PM