“ I did not know Bob personally, but Bob was a dear high school friend of my late husband, Ronald Talkington (d 4/26/2024) Ron shared many high school memories of his friend Bob. I'm sure they are sharing many happy memories together in the heavenly realm.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Bob's passing. I too wish him eternal peace. I knew Bob and he was a classmate from 5th grade at Lida Hooe Elementary School through graduation in '64 at Sunset. I remember seeing him at some of the Sunset class reunions as well. Looking forward to seeing you, Bob, again at our reunion in Heaven.

“ Once upon a time, in the country side outside of Austin, dozens of us worked together to construct a dome house, in the bright winter sun. It was a glorious time. Those days were a high point in my life. But among my cherished memories, the very best are of Bob playing his guitar and singing around our nighttime campfires, under a giant oak and beside the creek. In this way, Bob will live so long as any of us live, who shared that magical experience.
