Ron rarely met a stranger, he was constantly surprising his family with all the people he knew. Ron was an avid gearhead. Spending countless hours finding rare parts and networking with other collectors. One of his past times was restoring and caring for his 1955 baby blue Chevy Belair and an array of other vehicles. He was consistently taking care of the cars for his loved ones. Ron was a member of Central Texas Classic Chevy Club. He attended many car shows and won some awards. Later in life, Ron used his time & energy to care for his grandkids who he loved dearly.

The family would like to give thanks to Magnolia Hospice for their care and support; in particular his nurse Brooke and his caretaker Namy. In carrying out Ron's final wishes, there will not be a formal service. Instead his family will host a Celebration of a Life gathering at a later time.
