

Roxanne Brown

February 15, 1956 - May 12, 2025

Roxanne Brown, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, great aunt, sister, and vibrant soul, passed away peacefully on May 11th 2025 at the age of 69.

She was a woman of warmth, love, and compassion.

A lifelong lover of music, Roxanne found beauty in melodies and rhythm, whether humming softly in the kitchen where she loved to cook and bake, dancing freely in the living room, or going to concerts.

Her garden was her sanctuary, a place where flowers bloomed under her tender care and vegetables thrived in the warmth of her attention. She had a gift for bringing things to life — in the soil, in her home, and in the hearts of those around her.

She also loved camping, the crackle of a fire under the stars, the fresh morning air in the woods, and the quiet joy of sharing stories around a glowing flame, camping wasn't just a getaway for her; it was a way of reconnecting with loved ones, with the earth, and with herself.

Above all, Roxanne was a nurturer- generous, kind, and always ready with a listening ear or a comforting word. She taught her family the value of patience, compassion, and the importance of living with an open heart.

Colossians 3:12

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

-A celebration of her life will be held on July 5th in her Home in Cedar park
