My heart is broken at the thought of Bubba's passing. Although separated time and distance, Bubba was a true friend and the home that RC and Mary provided for their family was a home away from home refuge for me at times.

“ In an era of computers, the words that are written will last forever, not a lifetime, but forever. So I write this for all of the grandchildren, great grandchildren and all his babies that will follow so they can feel his love and warmth for a lifetime and have a small peek into the man he was. My brother, Bubber (Bub-A-Dub).....His blue eyes were the color of the sky on a beautiful sunny day and they twinkled when he smiled. Even though he was a big man and as strong as an ox, you could feel his gentleness and his warm-loving heart. He had a sense of humor that could make you laugh for days about a story that he could barely tell without bursting into laughter again and again or reminiscing over old shenanigans he pulled as a kid.. It never mattered what I cooked for him, he acted like he'd never tasted anything more delicious, even though we both knew better. His love for his family was as big as Texas and it was UNCONDITIONAL in every way. His five grandson's made his chest puff out with pride, how strong and handsome they were.....he'd say they were full of "Cox Charm" and you could see him just gaze at them with a sense of great joy. My brother was full of love, dedicated to family and lived his life with honor and showed great kindness and love to all he knew. My life was richly blessed by him and he will leave a big empty spot in my heart. I know that he is well now, a body restored and sitting at the foot of our Lord and Savior. On one of my last visits, he wasn't able to communicate, but he could hum, so we hummed Waltz Across Texas. It brought back many memories of our Mama & Daddy dancing and I believe with all my heart that they were there watching over him. Until we meet again, we will hold your memories in our hearts! Love you Bub-A-Dub

Bubba's basic training graduation photo...I was right there with him as we went through basic training together. Drill sergeant McKennon nicknamed him "Big Time." (Patrick Shane)
