

Ruben Ray Zamora

August 22, 1955 - December 18, 2014

Ruben Ray Zamora born on August 22, 1955, age 59, fought the last of his battle with liver cancer on Thursday, December 18, 2014. He was born to the late Elias R. Zamora Sr. and survived by his mother Lucille S. Zamora; preceded by his late wife Kirsten Walker-Zamora; and survived by his children, Andrea Morris, Ruben James Zamora, Rachel Walker-Zamora, Renae Walker-Zamora, Pamela Coy and Tracy Castillo and their families; and his only grandchild Brittan Morris, whom he was very proud of; and his twelve siblings: Herbert Cortez, Elias R. Zamora Jr., John Cortez, Xavier Gerard Zamora, John Joseph Zamora, Jerome Zachary Zamora, Sr., Bernadette Hyatt, Larry Paul Zamora, Elizabeth Lerma, Cesily Bosley, Ronald Zamora, and Jessica Baca. In addition to brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins in and around the Austin area.

Ruben was best known for his skills in the kitchen. He was a skilled chef who worked in local Austin hotspots, such as the original Night Hawk on Congress, the Magic Time Machine on Riverside Dr., The Country Club of Austin, and owned Naranjas on E. Ceasar Chavez. As well as working in the Zamora family restaurant businesses over the years. He won many awards for ice sculpting, fruit and food displays around the Austin area. He enjoyed playing baseball, pool, listening to music and watching all sports.

He will be truly missed and remembered by all his family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Ruben Ray Zamora

October 05, 2023 at 10:58 AM

“ Ruben Ray Zamora

October 04, 2023 at 06:25 PM

“ Ruben Ray Zamora

September 26, 2023 at 10:57 PM