“ Scott you were such a great person to be around from the very first day I met you I knew you were going to be a great man for Cindy and your sense of humor was so awesome and I know that whenever I see some trailer tires I'm going to be laughing and I know you will be too up there in heaven. Thank you for sharing your holidays with us, thank you for opening your home for me and my children. You'll be greatly missed it's hard to believe that you're gone we love you Scott and we will miss you.

“ Honey, you will never know how much I appreciated your love for me. I love to tell the story of how we met. Thank you for showing me love and devotion. You will always live in my heart because there will never be another you. Scot, baby I miss you so much. Please continue walking beside me. Please whisper in my ear. Please visit me in my dreams. I love you Scot, always and forever.

Scot, from the 1st day I met you, your love for Cindy showed. You had such a great sense of humor. You were such a giver, thank you for always sharing your home with me and my kids. For allowing us to celebrate holidays with y'all was great. It's hard to believe you are gone. I know that every time I see some trailer tires I will have a good laugh cause I know you're having one too. You will be missed Scot but always remembered of the great person you were.

“ On one of the many trips that Scot and I took to Hidden Falls we made multiple trips down the different trails. As the day went on it began to rain then pour by what seemed like buckets full of water. We took the Royal Gorge trail and the water level quickly began to rise. Scot had the bikini top on the jeep and the doors were off. We were in the middle of the gorge and the water quickly rose to the level of the floor boards. Between the wake from tires of the jeep in front of us and deluge of rain it was pointless to even try to be dry, it was like swimming in our seats. We were laughing and having a blast, one of the most memorable trips that I had with my buddy Scot Ayers. Scot often let me drive his jeep. One time while I was driving I got a little to close a rock out cropping and I peeled one of his factory running boards off. Scot didn't get mad, he just laughed and told me he needed a reason to get the rock slider running boards that he really wanted. Scot & I would talk about work on the way to Hidden Falls but once we got there, took the doors off and aired down the tires the rest of the time was pure enjoyment. I'm already missing my buddy Scot. I see him frequently in my thoughts. Cindy and Scot enabled me to return to Texas and live with them until I could find a lease and bring my family home to Texas. Scot & Cindy were my second family. Cindy you can lean on me and I'll be there to help when you need it. Mike McCracken & Family

“ We knew Scot was a friend from the moment we met him. He warmed the room with his laughter and calming voice playing board games at the Carpenter house years ago. My husband Mike couldn't wait to go jeeping anywhere Scot wanted to go. We were blessed with Scot & Cindy's friendship and still can't believe he's gone. Sending our deepest condolences Cindy & family. We love ya'll and we know that Scot is jeeping & forever exploring in heaven until we all join him. Many blessings and peace be with you all. Our hearts hurt deeply for your loss. ❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️🙏🙏
