She was struggling to survive ALS for 3 years. The last 6 months were very difficult.

She was tired and gave up the fight on her own terms.

She has served selflessly a fighter for the less fortunate and the poor. She has always protected the abused and neglected women and children. Advocating for their right to be safe from harm and to be loved. She was always ready to help those in need. Silvia never met a stranger. She just kept adding people that she met to a long list of friends. She always had a contagious smile that would light up a room. She will be missed by many.
