Born in Jacksonville, Illinois, Steven was the beloved son of the late Clara and John Scott. He was predeceased by his brother John and sister Mary-Ann. In Texas, he continued his passion for teaching as a substitute teacher at local middle schools, positively impacting the lives of countless students.

Steven had a great love for baseball and spent many memorable moments at the ballpark. He volunteered as a coach for a local Little League, mentoring young players and sharing his passion for the game. His coaching not only taught them about baseball but also about teamwork, sportsmanship, and perseverance.

Family was paramount to Steven, and he treasured the moments spent with his wife of 38 years, Marlene, their children, John and Rachel, and their grandchildren, Trinity and Miranda. He was a pillar of strength and support, always offering guidance, love, and encouragement to his family.

Steven's legacy of faith was evident in every aspect of his life. He lived his life with unwavering faith, always trusting in God's plan and sharing the love of Christ with everyone he met.
