

Steven Williams

January 13, 1959 - July 27, 2011

Steven C Williams, age 52, died July 27th after a lengthy illness. Born January 13, 1959 in Buffalo, NY, Steve came to Texas in 1979 and settled in San Marcos in 1981. Steve was a generous person who loved to help people. He had a thorough understanding of how things work. He loved to repair anything that was broken ? cars, appliances, plumbing, furniture, and more. Steve was a fabulous cook. His Thanksgiving dinners are legendary. He also loved music, trains & playing pool.

Steve was preceded in death by his parents, Ruth Davidson and Cecil Williams.

He is survived by his wife of 31 years, Denise Steinhagen, sister-in-law Diana Steinhagen, sister Nancy Christman and husband Bobby, and a niece Carol Christman, as well as other family members. Steve also leaves many good friends in and around the San Marcos area.

Thanks to the kind people at CTMC Hospice, and San Marcos/Hays County EMS and at South Hays County Fire Dept.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Steve?s name can be made to CTMC Hospice or any local animal shelter.

“ Denise, I, too, am one of Steve's cousins. Stay strong and have faith. I was born in the same month as Steve. I miss him, as you do too. Thank you for taking care of Steve. Aunt Ruth and Uncle Cecil will take care of him. God bless you, Denise.

“ Denise -

I didn't know Steve as well as others who saw him frequently, but I enjoyed our short chats when I would call you. He always seemed a little shy to me.

Steve was such a talented guy, and I often wished I had a "Steve" to build kitty houses and porches for me. I'm glad you had him for 31 years; I just can't believe it was that long. Time flies.

I just wanted to share a little sentiment I found.

"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal." I know you have many wonderful memories.

Denise, find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends. I love you, and I'm thinking about you.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Denise and all of Steve’s beloved family and friends at this most difficult time. I’m one of Steve’s many cousins who knew Steve as a happy, young lad back in Buffalo. His dear Mother and mine were sisters in a large family that still flourishes today. I knew Steve’s Dad as someone who took me to my first hockey game, now decades ago, making sure I got to meet the players. Steve and Nancy seemed to be living an idyllic life, the kind we all hope for. Though I’ve been away from Buffalo for some time, I’ve always hoped to see Steve again. Reading all of the wonderful condolences, I can see that he was loved by all those whose lives he touched. I would have expected no less of this fine man. Though our family may be scattered farther today than in days gone by, nothing can weaken the bonds of family and love that live on through all circumstances.

Rest in peace, Steve, as you reap the rewards for all the good you did here on earth. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and all those who miss you so much. May God bless?

With deepest sympathy,

“ Wishing you all comfort and support in this difficult time.

From Thich Nhat Hanh's No Death, No Fear "When you lose a loved one, you suffer. But if you know how to look deeply, you have a chance to realize that his or her nature is truly the nature of no birth, no death. There is manifestation and cessation of manifestation in order to have another manifestation. You have to be very keen and very alert in order to recognize the new manifestation of just one person. But with the practice and efforts you can do it. So, taking the hand of someone next to you, close your eyes and imagine all of the leaves, the flowers, the birds and dewdrops. If you can stop and look deeply, you will be able to recognize your beloved one manifesting again and again in many forms. You will again embrace the joy of life."
