

Suk Hui Casados

April 6, 1947 - March 6, 2021

CASADOS, Suk Hui "Suki" (Son), age 73, formerly of Killeen, Texas passed away Saturday, March 6th, 2021 in her sleep.

Retired, originally born in South Korea. Suk, our devoted and beloved wife, nurturing mother, grandmother, and friend was a gentle, happy, and exceptionally sweet person by nature, excellent cook, and avid gardener. Some more of Suk's many joys in life consisted of her love for everything Korea: folk music, cuisine, history, and culture as well as, appreciation of all cultures in general, the beauty of nature, traveling throughout the United States and internationally, bingo, experiencing small escapades of adventure, and spending time with her family here and in Korea, grandchildren, and close friends.

Suk met her husband in South Korea and married in January of 1977 and had two children, Raul and Jenny. She is survived by her ever-loving husband of 44 years Paul L.; son, Raul V. Casados and his wife, Sonja; 4 grandchildren, Talia, Sophia, Yvette, and Bethanie; daughter, Jenny C. Rocha and her husband Wayne "Casey"; 6 grandchildren, Priscilla, Elizabeth, Carlos, Danielle, Annalicia, and Casey; great grandson, Nathan.

Suk is also survived by her remaining younger sisters and brother, the Son Family of Namgu, Busan, South Korea with several nieces and nephews, uncles, and aunts. Before the Son family, the Casados' had and forever will be an honorable, loving, and supportive family in their stead. Lastly, the family would like to express our most sincere gratitude to Suk's physicians and Therapists for their years of dedication, treatment, and attention which was shown to Suk and her family that enabled us all to spend more time in this world together both here in the U.S. and her family in South Korea.
