

Susan Day Woolard

August 15, 1945 - September 28, 2015

Austin – Services for Susan Day Woolard, 70, will be at 11am, Saturday, October 3 at Austin Korean First Presbyterian Church.

Susan Day Woolard died on September 28 at her residence in Austin.

Susan was born in Busan, Korea on August 15, 1945.

As a young woman, Susan immigrated to the United States. She taught herself to speak, read, and write English. With a very strong work ethic, Susan held many roles with increasing responsibility at several manufacturing plants.

During her career at Mobil Chemical, she met and married John Ross Woolard Jr.

She believed in a strong family and encouraged her sons and daughters to work hard and persevere in their goals. She was devastated by the loss of John in 2013. She was a deeply faithful servant of God and church played a vital role in her life.

She is preceded in death by her mother, father, husband, and granddaughter.

She is succeeded by her 3 daughters-Linda Foster, Bonnie Baker, and Connie Rivas and three sons-William Baker Jr., John R. Woolard III, and Chris Woolard. She has 11 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by her children and church community.
