

Sylvia Ann Vaquera Collins

September 26, 1958 - September 18, 2022

Collins, Sylvia

Sylvia Ann Vaquera Collins, 63, of Kyle, Texas, beloved wife, mother, sister, and aunt, passed away Sunday, September 18, 2022, surrounded by family at St. David's North Austin Hospital after fighting a hard battle against kidney disease. Born in Austin, TX on September 26, 1958, to Demetrio and Virginia Vaquera, she was one of eight children. She was preceded in death by her brother, Demetrio Vaquera Jr. and her mother, Virginia B. Vaquera.

She is survived by her loving husband of fifteen years, James R. Collins, her daughter, Miranda E. Lopez, her father Demetrio Vaquera, her siblings, Iris Hipolito, Judy Alcocer, Ralph Vaquera, Roy Vaquera, Rene Vaquera, Ron Vaquera, and many nieces and nephews.

She was a loving wife to her husband and a best friend to her only daughter. She loved the Dallas Cowboys and the Texas Longhorns. She'd never miss a game if she could help it. If she wasn't watching a game or watching a Christmas movie, you would find her baking or cooking for her family and coworkers. She worked over forty-five years in many hospitals in the Austin surrounding areas as an administrative in the labor and delivery department. Before retiring in the fall of 2020, she worked in a senior living retirement home with great residents and co-workers that became family.

The family would like to thank the ICU team at St. David's North Austin Hospital and Compassus Hospice for keeping her comfortable at the end and for their compassion to the family as they grieve their loss.

She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date for family and friends.
