“ One boy and five girls!!! Poor Tommy he didn't know what God had in store for him!! Truly he was an awesome brother!! He was just a phone call away to chat with, answer any questions you may have or just listen to you if you were sad and needed a friend to talk to.

One thing we shared was our "love" of Godzilla movies. Back in the day before we could record movies or buy movies; when you had to look at a "TV guide" to see what time a show was coming on, we would call each other to make sure we could watch it at the same time. Then we would talk about it and laugh at how fake everything looked!!! Simple yet good times!! I miss him already but what a guardian Angel we have been blessed with- I love you sweetheart, always have and always will - your baby sister, Carol “ Bless his heart he survived with 4 sisters. He was our shining star. We were blessed to be raised by a Mama and Daddy that raised us with unconditional love. As all of the Allens were. After Mama and Daddy passed, we became even closer. Tommy had become our family historian. Any time we had a question about Grandparents or Uncles or Aunts names Tommy knew. Any time we had a question about one of Mamas recipes Tommy knew. I looked forward to our weekly talks. No matter how bad he may have felt he always answered and listened patiently as I talked his ear off! He laughed at all of my corny jokes! He was not only my brother, but he was also my friend. A friend I could call on at any time. After my husband passed in February Tommy was my rock. No matter what time day or night I could call, and he would answer and listened as I rambled. Assuring me that God is and will always be in control. He never let anything come between him and his love of God. I know in my heart when Tommy went thru the gates of Heaven, he was greeted by Gods sweetest words "Well done good and faithful servant". I am blessed to have known him in my lifetime. No one could ever take his place.
