

Torin Cedric Archbold

September 19, 1963 - February 21, 2019

Torin C Archbold, 55, departed from this earth on February 21, 2019 at his home in Austin, TX.

Jill Archbold, his mother, went against many who wanted her to abort her child and gave him life on September 19, 1963 in Brooklyn, NY.

Torin is survived by a wife, Tracie Archbold; his mother Jill Archbold and step father Thomas Wilborn; his children: Courtney Archbold, Ashley Archbold, Mikal Wilson, Chelsea Archbold, Tylah Archbold, Ethan Archbold, Dagney Archbold and Dyona Stevenson; his grandchildren: Dylan, Cadence, Neveah, Anora, Issac, Ivy, Star and Kendra; his sons in law: Neil and Trey, and his cousin Vincent VanValen.

Torin grew up to be a talented basketball player, a music producer and songwriter, a political advocate, a blogger, a successful salesman in Austin's auto industry, and was loved by many in the community. He had a way with words that created a very large Facebook following from all over the world.

Torin was the most devoted father and grandfather to his children and grandchildren. They were his world and his reason for everything. He instilled in them many talents that he was very proud of. Torin was that person to help anyone in need no matter what it was and no matter the cost. He shared anything with everyone. He will be extremely missed. The void left can never be replaced.

Torin was a no frill type of person that just loved to laugh, watch tv, and enjoy what life had to offer. He will be cremated as he wished and a Going Home event planned in his honor.
