

Victor Carver

March 1, 1954 - September 2, 2021

Victor Lynn Carver, age 67, died of pancreatic cancer on Thursday, September 2, 2021, at his home in Georgetown, Texas, with his family around him.

Victor is survived by his wife, Marcy R. Carver of Georgetown, Texas; his son, Toby D. Carver, of Valley Center, Kansas; his son, Corey J. Carver, of Killeen, Texas; and his son, Christopher L. Carver, of Longview, Texas; three daughters-in-law, Rebekah Carver, Laura Carver and Tamara Carver; and six grandchildren, Lukas, Mailey, Gregory, Phoenix, Logan and Isabella.

He is preceded in death by his father, Joe B. Carver, of Guymon, Oklahoma; his mother, Ina F. Carver, of Guymon, Oklahoma; and his sister, Jo Ann Lovato, of Guymon, Oklahoma.

Victor was born on March 1, 1954 in Olton, Texas, to parents Joe B. Carver and Ina F. Carver, and had six siblings, one brother and five sisters. He farmed and ranched when he was first married and then went into the oilfield, where he worked for over 40 years. Victor was a great family man and a loving husband and father. He married Marcy in 1972 and the couple have three children together.

Victor was a social, active man who was deeply involved in church for most of his life. He loved to cook and enjoyed golf. His family and friends will always remember him as a happy and generous person, who always had a smile on his face.
