

Victor L. Lewis

September 29, 1962 - October 18, 2018

Victor L. Lewis, age 56, passed on Thursday, October 18, 2018. Vic was born on September 29, 1962 in Tyler, TX to Arthur and Carolyn (Murphy) Lewis. He succeeded in the construction industry, only second to his success and devotion as a father to Cozmo Lewis. Having volunteered coaching youth football, Vic opened his home to kids to have guidance, structure, and support. Vic loved football and being a dad above all else. He was known for his quick wit, compassion, and selfless spirit.

Vic was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Caroline. He is survived by his son Cozmo, "kids" Dustin and Katie, three sisters Jeanie, Susan, and Sandra, all of whom will miss him greatly. Private family services will be held.

Everyone who knew and loved Vic is asked to remember him and celebrate his life in their own way. He would recommend a 12-pack of Budweiser, good company, and sports radio. We will come together to celebrate his life on Saturday, October 27th at the home of Cozmo and Kaitlyn from 12-3pm.

“It is his legacy we keep.”

“ Dear little brother - they didn't have a burnt orange candle to light for you so I had to settle for the yellow! Thank you for all the great memories - all those football and baseball games we went to together and for that quick wit of yours that kept all laughing from the time you were child all through our lives. I love you - Jeannie
