

William Bruce Canady

May 10, 1958 - April 4, 2026

William Bruce Canady passed away on April 4, 2026 at his home in Leander, Texas.

Bruce was born to James Maurice Canady and Joann Canady in Austin, Texas on May 10, 1958.

He grew up in North Austin and attended Sydney Lanier High School.

Bruce worked for several years as a land surveyor at J C Evans Construction Company, Ranger Excavating, and Chasco Construction Company. In his later years, he was a long haul cross country truck driver.

A true Texan at heart, Bruce had a deep love for the music of Stevie Ray Vaughan, the roar of a NASCAR race, and the humor of King of the Hill.

Bruce is survived by his children.
