“ I remember Buddy as being a quiet, gentle and just a very sweet person. He's my first cousin on my mother's side and we grew up spending many hours playing games together with our other cousins in the backyard of mamaw and papaw Payne's house. After church on Sunday nights we'd all get together at mamaw and papaw's house. The men would sit in the livingroom discussing world events and the women would be around the kitchen table discussing, kids, husbands, recipes and diets while us kids would be outside playing games together like Red Rover, Red Light, Chase etc.. He is part of some very sweet and special memories for me.
